Dear Ms. Sugarman,

This letter is in response to the FEC inquiry dated February 22, 2013 and received on April 4, 2013.

The Republican Jewish Coalition (RJC) does not accept contributions from donors to further specific independent expenditures. Instead, all contributions to the RJC are deposited in a general operating account and all disbursements are made from general funds. No single contribution is ever linked to further a specific independent expenditure. As such, the RJC is not required to report any contributions in connection with these independent expenditures.

Sincerely,

Matthew Brooks
Executive Director
Republican Jewish Coalition
